

Wymondham College - 12th March 2015

Metamorphosis" Scene Productions

On Thursday 12th March, Scene Productions brought their thrilling performance of "Metamorphosis" to the College.

The show was open to Year 11, 12 and 13 and was attended by over 50 Drama students. The play tells the story of Gregor Samsa, a hardworking salesman, who inexplicably finds himself transformed into an insect overnight. The Scene Productions cast demonstrated an exception level of creativity and physical control in the telling of this harrowing tale which forces the audience to confront the themes of fear and social cleansing.

“The ensemble and choral work was so striking”.

“Impressive synchronicity and physical theatre.”

“Fantastic! A creative use of 3 performers and very little set. I can’t imagine how challenging it must have been to perform.”

Year 12 Drama and Theatre Studies Students
