

SHP's Trustee - John Mills:

Just a brief note of thanks and congratulations to you and all concerned in the production of 'Oh what a lovely war'.

It was both memorable and moving. (A highly creative approach showed us many parts of SHP never seen before.) The trench route to the cellar bar was a new experience.

Overall it was a splendid community production and a fitting commemoration with a most touching last post Bracknell should be rightly proud of this achievement.

as aye

Wow. That's all I can say. Wow! That wasn't a show, that was an experience! From start to finish the amount of effort and hard work that has gone into it is clear to see. Oh What A Lovely War cast you should be proud!

It was funny, moving, very informative. It has solidified even more my deep hatred of war. The contrast between the rich politicians playing 'Risk' and the poor young boys who killed each other in the name of. The disgusting conditions they lived and fought in. And what's more, the way it was exactly the same in each and every country involved!

Excellent!

Could you please thank the cast and crew for a wonderful evenings entertainment. What a fantastic show! A very unique experience from start to finish from the joy and happiness in Act One to the real thought provoking poignancy after the interval. The audience interactivity is the real gem. A truly great experience. Thank you once again. Scott, Julie and Ethan Bradd
