

Audience Review – South Hill Park – 4th March 2015

My family and I came to see Metamorphosis (Kafka) in the Studio Theatre on Weds 4th March and we wondered if you might be able to pass on our comments to the three actors who starred in the play? They were brilliant - worked so very hard and absorbed all of us completely with their acting, versatility and professionalism. The ticket price was worth every penny and we all agreed we would pay even more to see them if they came back with another such play in the future. A truly great night was had by all - thank you.